MAGNUS'S ENAMELLED SLATE.—Under the patronage of Her Majesty, Prince Albert, the Duke of Wellington, and the principal of the Nobility, the most eminent Architects, Builders, &c. &c.—This beautiful material has been introduced into Buckingham Palace, the drawing-rooms at Osborne, Apsley House, Strathfieldsaye, &c. &c., and it is now taking the place of marble in the mansions of the nobility generally. It is also extensively used in Government offices, the principal railway stations, and other public buildings. It can only be distinguished from real marble by its superior brilliancy of polish, and it is more durable, and less liable to chip at the edges, than marble. The choicest productions, such as black and gold, mottled, jasper, verd antique, jet black, &c. are not more than one-third of the price of marble. Among the articles manufactured at the Pimlico Slate Works are chimney pieces, consoles, billiard and table tops of all descriptions, pedestals, pilasters, columns, pilmths, tazzas, mural tablets, baths, wash stand tops, &c. &c. Cisterns, damp courses, flooring, and plain slate-work in general executed on extraordinarily moderate terms. Welsh slate slabs of the finest descriptions, at very reduced prices.—N.B. The trade supplied with whole cargoes, self-faced, or planed on one or both sides, direct from the quarries.—A book of prices will be forwarded on application to Mr. MAGNUS, Pimlico Slate Works, Upper Belgrave-place, London.

FREESTONE.—Noblemen, Gentlemen, Engineers, Architects, Builders, Stone Masons, Grave-stone-cutters and others, are again respectfully reminded of the CASTERTON FREESTONE. This admirable Stone, a perfect oolite, is found in beds of 3 and 4 feet in thickness, of very beautiful and uniform colour and texture, and retains the effects of intense frost. It has been used by many of the most eminent architects in the kingdom, for the building and restoring of churches, and other public buildings, in its locality, and in all the stations from Wellingborough to Peterborough, on the Blisworth and Peterborough line of Railway, its comparatively low price, and the facility with which it is wrought, are duly appreciated. The quarry is situate in the parish of Little Casterton, in the county of Rutland, about one mile from Stamford and its Railway, and the river Welland, about seven miles from the River Nene, at Wansford, and the Blisworth and Peterborough Railway, and ten from the Bourne Eau.—For further particulars and price apply to FRANCIS SIMPSON and SONS, Stamford.

PORTLAND CEMENT.—Testimonials received from all quarters prove this CEMENT to possess the rare property of withstanding the severest frost, and to be consequently superior to every other for hydraulic purposes—such as the Building and Lining of Reservoirs, Cisterns, Baths, Fish-ponds, &c. For External Plastering and Ornamental Castings, it requires neither Colour nor Paint; it never vegetates, and will carry from three to four times its own body of sand.

Manufacturers, J. B. WHITE and SONS, Millbank-street, Westminster.

KEENE'S PATENT MARBLE CEMENT forms an exceedingly hard and indestructible Stucco, which may either be prepared for paint, or finished in imitation of stone, by the addition of Portland or other stone dust.

It is a cheap and efficient substitute in place of wood for skirting, architrave, and other mouldings, in its application for which purpose it checks the progress of Fire and the attacks of Vermin.

Patentees and sole Manufacturers, J. B. WHITE and SONS, Millbank-street, Westminster, and Steel-street, Liverpool.

MARTIN'S FIRE-PROOF AND ORNAMENTAL CEMENT.

CAUTION.—Messrs. STEVENS and SON Patentees, beg to caution their friends and the trade generally against confounding this invaluable Cement with others, erroneously said to be of the same description. S. and S. pledge themselves that MARTIN'S CEMENT is totally dissimilar in composition and manufacture from every other, and being a neutral compound, is not only free from chemical agency upon any substance with which it may come in contact, but completely resists the action of the strongest acids. They feel it a duty to direct attention to the following properties, which it exclusively possesses:—

1. It rapidly acquires the hardness of stone.
2. Unlike other internal cements, its hardness is uniform throughout its entire thickness.
3. Its surface (which may be made equal to that of the finest marble) NEVER THROWS OUT ANY SALT, and will receive paint in four days, without peeling, when put upon dry work.

It is peculiarly adapted as an internal stucco for walls, skirtings, architraves, mouldings, and enrichments of all kinds, to all of which purposes it has been extensively applied by Mr. Thomas Cubitt, on the Grosvenor estate, &c.

For the above purposes, it possesses great advantages over woods, being more economical and durable, resisting fire, damp, and vermin.

For the floors of halls and fire-proof warehouses, its lightness, durability, and uniform surface give it an immense advantage over stone, being, at the same time, much more economical. The most satisfactory references can be given. To be had of the Patentees, Plaster of Paris and Cement Manufacturers, 168, DRURY LANE.

Agent for Liverpool and Manchester, Mr. R. PART, 28, Cannin-place, Liverpool.

ROMAN CEMENT, PLASTER, and MASTIC, of the best quality, may be had at BLASHFIELDS Wharf, Waterloo Dock, Commercial-road, Lambeth. Also TARRAS, an Hydraulic Cement, which is suited either for Plastering or building Brick work. It dries the colour of Bath stone, and does not vegetate; and from its not setting so rapidly as Roman Cement, is peculiarly adapted for constructing brick arches, and other works having a tendency to settlement. Also, tanks, and cisterns, of a cheap, light, and durable character, may be constructed with this Cement and plain tiles. The Tarras when dry exceeds in hardness any other cement now in use.

BRICKS, TILES, CHIMNEY SHAFTS, &c.
